

NURSE HAS SECOND WILL, WHICH FAVORS HUSBAND, NOT WELL

Beautiful Mrs. Barringer Left Her Mother but Scant Remembrance.

The filing of the will of Mrs. Catherine Lee Barringer, a woman of such striking beauty that she caused a ripple of admiration when she entered Hector's or Sherry's or Martin's, or the Deaux Arts, all of which she frequented with her husband, has led to some confusion.

In the will, which is six years old, her husband, to whom she was married November, after an acquaintance of seven years, is not mentioned. But the will, which is the possession of Miss Kelly, the trained nurse who attended her in her last illness. According to Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Barringer was very wealthy because of the opposition of her mother, Mrs. Lucille Dorman of No. 15 West Eighty-third street, to her marriage to Barringer.

In this will, according to Mrs. Kelly, she left the Deal Beach house to her husband, and divided the rest of her property between her mother and sister, Mrs. Julia A. Smaoke of No. 141 West Harrison street, Jersey City. The Trust Company was named as the executor of this will. Mrs. Dorman is named in the document offered here.

WILL, AN HEIR, A MEMBER OF DORMAN FAMILY.

According to members of the family, Mr. Well was a devoted friend of the Dorman household for many years. He lived at the Eighty-third street house in the winter and at the Deal Beach house in summer. It was understood by the family that because of the religious prejudices of his own family he was unable to ask Miss Catherine Lee Doyle (Mrs. Barringer's maiden name) to marry him during the lifetime of his father. They had threatened to cut him off from a $200,000 estate should he do so.

Seven years ago Miss Doyle met Walter Barringer, a prominent member of the Chicago Board of Trade. She became very fond of him. Time and again she consented to marry him only to be dissuaded by her mother. Friends of the family say that many times when Barringer came on from Chicago she would promise to go to the City Hall with him for their license and as many times would break her promise and send him back disappointed.

At last in November he persuaded her to leave her mother to go to New Jersey with him and be married. At the house of the groom, Mrs. Dorman was not pleased when they returned to break the news to her.

Mrs. Barringer went to Deal Beach to spend the summer with her mother. She caught a severe cold which progressed into pneumonia. Her mother did not appear at the cottage during her illness. Mrs. Dorman's absence, according to Mrs. Kelly, the nurse, caused her to think of making a new will which would leave her mother only enough to prevent a lawsuit.

The Evening World will issue a special feature on the will. It will be illustrated in color. The latest summer fashions for women and children will be pictured. Subscribers. Order your Sunday World in advance.

MEXICAN BANDIT, LEADER KILLED, BAND BROKEN UP

"Tutti" and Four of His Men Shot, 10 Wounded, 20 Captured by Troops.

CANANEA, Mex., April 29.—Felipe Lores, better known as "Tutti," the bandit leader, has been killed and his band broken up in a battle with Federal troops near Agua de Rojel in the Gutierrez Mountains, according to reports received here to-day.

Four of "Tutti's" men were killed, ten wounded and the prisoners, including the wounded, number twenty. The bandits had looted many small mining camps and settlements in northern Sonora.

The mail stage between Cananea and Arispe was held up near Bacanaut, Saturday by bandits, supposed to have been Escalona's men.

MEXICO CITY, April 30.—Thirty rifles which were seized by the police yesterday in the American colony were returned to Ambassador Wilson last night without explanation. Mr. Wilson has taken the matter up with the Governor of the Federal District.

Boy Twisted in Bedclothes to Death.

Norman McPherson, fifteen years old, of Lynn, Mass., was found smothered to death in bed at his home.

The boy, while asleep, became so twisted in the bed clothing that he could not get air.

GOOD LOOKING HANDS A WOMAN'S AMBITION

Easy Method Found of Keeping Them Soft, Smooth and Flawless

"I am ashamed to appear at the bridge club," remarked a society matron to her bosom friend. "My maid left last week and I have had to wash dishes and do housework until my hands are sightless. How can I play cards with red and roughened hands?"

"Don't worry," said the friend, "rub Velogen into them night and morning and before going out of doors and you'll soon have smooth, good-looking hands. It works wonders in keeping face and hands fresh and young looking."

Velogen has a hundred household uses. It is good for little cuts and abrasions and for chapped lips and little burns and scalds. Will not soil delicate dress fabrics. At all druggists, 45 cents a tube.

If You Like This White Sort of a White Sale

We shall be glad to have you read further about it and to see the merchandise to be shown tomorrow and following days of May on the Third floor, on the Main Aisle and on the Subway floor, of the Old Building.

On the Third Floor

Those famous Little French Shops surrounding the famous Stewart Rotunda strike the keynote of the sale—PARIS.

Paris lingerie and blouses for those who can afford them—and in this sale they are almost as cheap as in Paris itself.

Paris ideas and patterns and models in domestic underclothes and waists and negligees—often so like the real French garments that they scarcely can be told apart.

This is the triumph we have reached in this May Sale opening tomorrow and continuing every business day in the month.

Paris Wraps Reproduced Here

The Seigne, $20 The Mirabelle, $12 The Corday Cape Coat, $10

"The Seigne" coat is of changeable or black taffeta, a reproduction of the exquisite wrap designed by Bob et Marie, and said to be the most fashionable coat of the season. It is three-quarter length with a lace collar and quaint pleatings.

The original model cost $150.

We have reproduced it to sell for twenty dollars.

Also shown for the first time, "the Mirabelle." This piquant cutaway coat is of black and changeable taffeta, reaching a little below the hips and expressing the new fashion note of Paris. It is ideal to wear with lingerie, chiffon and other summer dresses. This reproduction of a new French coat is twelve dollars.

Second floor, Old Building.

The New Corday Cape Coat, $10

One hundred of these very attractive wraps of fine black satin lined throughout with peau de cygne in various colors, such as American Beauty, gold, Copenhagen, rose and pink. Please note that both inside and out are all silk and that the capes are much fuller than any we have seen higher priced. We have just 100 to sell at $10.

The Corday cape coat will be shown both in the Cotume Salons Second floor, and on the Subway floor.
